John Krinn Dies
Suddenly At Home

The second former custodian in the Westerville Public Schools has died in as many weeks. John W. Krinn 77, of 316 S. State St., died suddenly at his home on Monday.

Only a week earlier on March 3 a former co-worker of Krinn’s William M. Milhoan died in a Nelsonville hospital.

Krinn was employed by the Westerville Schools in 1938 as custodian at Westerville High; He later became head custodian for the entire school system and held that position when he resigned July 1, 1955.

KRINN WAS A member of the Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church.

Survivors include Krinn’s wife, Nettie L; a daughter Mrs. James R. Burgoon, 202 Hamilton Ave; two nephews; a niece; and several cousins.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Moreland Funeral Home by Elder Clapham and Elder Gale Hanover officiating. Interment was made in Otterbein Cemetery.
